THE OC TREE HUGGER'S BALL

The Canyon Land Conservation Fund, Sierra Club, and other local environmental organizations are working to preserve the remaining wildlands of the Santa Ana Mountains. These Mountains are home to one of the most bio-diverse ecosystems of North America, and house many threatened and endangered species, cultural and ecological resources, along with numerous hiking & biking trails and breathtaking landscapes & scenery.

Please join us at the upcoming 6th Annual Tree Hugger's Ball and Go Green Expo on June 12, 2010, to help protect these valuable resources for our future generations to discover and enjoy!
